

SHINE A LIGHT ON OUR RIGHTS

FOR NADIA BUSHNAQ

MUSIC BY JENNIFER JOLLEY

LYRICS BY JACQUELINE SUSKIN

Shine a light on our rights
An endless will so bright
Power in determination
Keeps her climbing, climbing, high in spite

Who weaves the base of peace?
It is she who believes
Who builds the bedrock?
It is she who will not leave

Take our trust in tradition
Balance it with transformation
Challenge our view of participation
The worthy work of dedication

Who weaves the base of peace?
It is she who believes
Who builds the bedrock?
It is she who will not leave

Overcome barriers
These roads aren't paved with roses
Expose our beauty of our fight
To uphold goodness with all our might

Who weaves the base of peace?
It is she who believes
Who builds the bedrock?
It is she who will not leave
It is she who will not leave
